- ✓ For diaspora based citizens and international applicants the fee is US$10.00
- ✓ renewable every year.

Discipline

With the centre's vision to establish a standard of excellence in cultural heritage sustainability and community development in southern Africa, a strict code of conduct will be enforced as a necessary step towards the realization of our goals.

The following shall constitute offences that may result in withdrawal of membership and in some cases outright prosecution.

1. Spreading false information about the centre
2. Using indecent language
3. Publishing information aimed at tarnishing the image of the centre
4. Gross insubordination
5. Defrauding the centre of funds
6. Unauthorized solicitation of funds from the public
7. Fraudulent practices
8. Discrimination based on gender, race, tribe, religion or national origin
