

WELCOME TO THE NEW ROAD TO MISS TIBAKALANGA 2025–2026

✨ “A Crown You Live — A Culture You Carry.” ✨

*“A crown is not just something you wear — it’s something you live.
Be the kind of Queen who lifts others up with her example and her heart.”*

✨ A New Opportunity

The Miss TiBaKalanga journey is about more than just a crown. Alongside celebrating beauty and culture, it introduces a new and exciting opportunity for those who become village queens or princesses.

If you are taking part in the competition, it’s important to know that winners will not only represent their villages at the grand festival — they will also become Queens for Dignity Ambassadors, taking on a leadership role in their communities.

☒ What Is a Queen for Dignity Ambassador?

As an ambassador, you will use your position to inspire and empower other young women and girls. Together with Nkosi Nkomo and the TG Silundika Cultural Community Centre (TGSCCC), you'll help promote Reusable Sanitary Pad Workshops held at the Centre. These workshops teach women and girls valuable life skills — how to make reusable pads, care for their health, and support one another. It's a simple but powerful way to give back to your community.

🌿 What You'll Do if You Win

- Spread the Word:

Tell others about the workshops at school, church, and local gatherings.

- Be a Role Model:

Tell others about the workshops at school, church, and local gatherings.

- Connect Your Community:

Tell others about the workshops at school, church, and local gatherings.

- Work with Nkosi Nkomo and your Village Coordinators:

Stay in touch for updates, briefings, and photo opportunities as part of the Queens for Dignity campaign.

🏆 Why It Matters

This new element of the competition adds purpose to your crown. It helps you make a real difference in your community and shows that Miss TiBaKalanga is about beauty, culture, and leadership working together.
